

Key Holding, Mobile Response and Mobile Patrols

Peace of Mind is Priceless

The keys to your livelihood are safe in the hands of GGL Security.

GGL Security Key holding, Mobile Response and Mobile Patrol services will provide added value to your existing security programme. GGL's Key Holding, Mobile Response and Mobile Patrol services backed up by our Licensed Monitoring Centre is just what you want to complete your home and business security needs.

The Facts

Homes and premises that appear locked up or lifeless for a number of days are always attractive to thieves.

➤ Keyholding and Mobile Response: The rapid arrival of a Mobile Response vehicle in reaction to an alarm activation, is often enough to deter and dissuade a thief, resulting in fewer losses and less damage.

➤ Mobile Patrols: You can be ahead of the thieves by having a regular security presence through our Mobile Patrol visits, who will report any activity and observations back to you, the customer.

The Solution

GGL's Key Holding and Mobile Response Service means you are backed up by our monitoring centre and don't have to worry when you are away from your home or business.

- GGL secures your keys and site information in our International Monitoring Centre.
- We assist emergency services in gaining access to your business - on your instructions.
- We ensure secure lock down of the site once the area has been declared clear.

➤ Our trained, licensed and fully insured officers are ready to respond rapidly to alarm activations at your property.

Mobile Patrols: GGL ensures that our mobile patrols visit and perform checks on many premises at irregular intervals and unspecified times, particularly during the silent hours, weekends and holiday periods.

➤ Our officers provide a building lock-up and open-up service, along with internal property checks and external patrols.

The Result

You benefit from a secure option and extension to your existing security programme in terms of:

- Complete security protection at weekends, holidays and during silent hours.
- High quality, rapid response security you can rely on.

➤ Risk to your property, your assets and your staff is greatly lowered.

- A cost-effective, flexible service to suit your needs.
- Peace of mind is priceless.
